

Law School Coursework Assessment

ENVIRONMENTAL LAW
(LAWDM0013)

2016/17

COURSEWORK 1

The coursework must be in MS Word format and not more than 3000 words in length (excluding bibliography and footnotes).

Please adhere to the guidelines for footnotes and referencing and be aware of the penalties for exceeding the word limit. For details, see the Coursework Guidelines 2016-17 on Blackboard: Law Student Information > Assessment > Coursework.

The coursework must be submitted electronically via Blackboard no later than 12 noon on Tuesday 31st January 2017.

This coursework carries 50% of the marks in this unit.

Please answer ONE of the following questions:

1. Environmental principles lack legal teeth. Critically discuss in relation to one such principle.

OR

2. Far from drawing on one single regulatory approaches (eg command and control, reflexive, market-based), many environmental laws interweave a variety. Does that make them 'smart'? Answer in the relation to a sector of your choice, such as water, industrial emissions etc.

OR

3. Both procedural and substantive environmental rights are imperative. Discuss in relation to the capacity of the Aarhus Convention to secure environmental justice.